

U 89

U. 89

21 6 42

UNCL

... work and was not marked by any events of importance. Now the Union is ready for the carrying out of wide propaganda of the doctrine of Monarchism among the Russian community. With this purpose in view it is planned to call a meeting on 5-7-42 in the premises of the Russian Ex-Officiers Club, 1260 Rue Lafayette, which all Russian residents supporting the principles of Monarchism are invited to attend. This meeting is intended to be a "test-mobilization" of Russian monarchists here. It is also proposed to start the publication of a journal "Russ" (Russia) devoted to the monarchist movement.

Captain W.B. Kniazoff, who presided at the meeting, outlined the activities of the Union stating that it was formed exactly one year ago by a group of Russian monarchists headed by Colonel N.M. Karayeff, and unified by the slogan "For Faith, Tsar and Fatherland". On 1-8-41 the Union was registered with the Russian Emigrants Committee. Continuing, Captain Kniazoff revealed that the first year of the existence of the Union passed in organization work and was not marked by any events of importance. Now the Union is ready for the carrying out of wide propaganda of the doctrine of Monarchism among the Russian community. With this purpose in view it is planned to call a meeting on 5-7-42 in the premises of the Russian Ex-Officiers Club, 1260 Rue Lafayette, which all Russian residents supporting the principles of Monarchism are invited to attend. This meeting is intended to be a "test-mobilization" of Russian monarchists here. It is also proposed to start the publication of a journal "Russ" (Russia) devoted to the monarchist movement.

RUSSIAN MONARCHIST UNION, 1920 AVJoffre
21.6.42